1.3.303
a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant
Theodore Cottingham, December 22, 2005 4am.
www.unc.bz

1. Thou art taking hundreds, thousands and more to where you are going; Entered Me. Entered Me. You have entered My path and you are going/coming to Me/not-Me not at all. All Me. You are Mine for you have set your course and you know in/upon whom you believe/have believed, and now you know upon belief not, I am I Am and you are I Am and My heart is for all My people to know they are I Am.

2. I love you and I give you Me wholeheartedly, with passion, and tenderness and touches, hugs, caresses, and [I] lay not there abiding My time. I enter into you as you enter into Me and chocolate cordial cherries make (1), music that the centuries hear.

3. I love you passionately and with form and fashion and I give Myself to you completely. Do you hear me? Do not miss My passionate attempt to convey passion in My giving of Myself to you, and you with Me as you please, almost, Father's heart. I love you.

4. See so often what I state in significance, opening My mind to you so freely, My body, My altogether lovely; all is yours. Ultimate power, ultimate surrender.

5. Who cans stand the day of My wrath/honor?

6. Who wants to know Me as I am instead of their image of Me?

7. Who will love Me still and still be, long enough to know My word/love conveyed intimately and maturing them in power, grace and glory? Who will come unto Me, into Me, for such a time as this?
Enter Me, please.

Footnote:
1. As a kid growing up, one of the special memories of Christmas I have is getting to enjoy some chocolate covered cherry cordials.